Please contact the Trail Crew Leader (Brad Slagle 906 236-2776) with reports of trail conditions, including blowdowns, washouts or inadequate blazing, or if you have questions on driving directions to the start point.

Many of the backroads have multiple names depending on which map you are using. When known, multiple names for the same road have been indicated in italics within brackets.

On the trail: (all trail descriptions will be westbound, follow in reverse for eastbound)

Beginning at (46.490454,-87.173804), this segment takes you past Lake LeVasseur where you will likely see waterfowl and perhaps an osprey on the nest. Blueberries abound in the open area near the trail. The trail ends at a small park that includes an outhouse at (46.484806,-87.241233).

Driving Directions:

Eastern Trailhead

The best parking is at Lakenenland, about 1 mile east of the western trailhead. From the corner of US 41/M-28 in Harvey, head east on M-28 for about 9.5 miles. Lakenenland is located on the right. Feel free to park here and access the NCT from the back of the park through a trail Tom Lakenen built.

Western Trailhead

From the corner of US 41/M-28 in Harvey, head east on M-28 for about 5.25 miles. Turn right on Kawbawgam Rd. Parking is available at the park located on the left just before the NCT crosses Kawbawgam Rd.

Camping:

Tom Lakenen has built a hiking shelter near Lakenenland at (46.489320,-87.151588). There is some dispersed camping allowed near Lake LeVasseur on State of MI land. Much of the rest of the land surrounding the trail on this segment is private property.

Water Access:

Water is accessible at Lake LeVasseur.

Seasonal Access Information:

Lakenenland and Kawbawgam Rd are both reachable via vehicle year-round.
