On the trail:

From [Harrison Rd/Little Garlic Rd], head northwest up into the woods. This trail is a little rocky as it follows the Little Garlic River with a couple of feeder streams with wooden bridges. The falls are well worth the hike!

Camping:

There is an established rustic DNR campsite with a latrine about .7 miles along the trail.

Water Access:

Water is available via the Little Garlic River.

See Segment 19 for directions and access information.
