

Teddy Lake Spur

Updated April 2026 Google Map of Teddy Lake Spur The Google Map is only for an overview of the trail. Use Avenza Maps for actually locating and following the trail.

Trail Adopter: Todd Olson oly7790@hotmail.com

Segment length: About .1 miles in each direction

Link to Avenza Maps Online Use Map # 32 in Avenza app. Make sure you have the current updates for Avenza. Always refer to the updated Avenza Maps for the most current NCT mile markers.

Please contact mac@northcountrytrail.org or the Trail Adopter above with reports of trail conditions, including blowdowns, washouts or inadequate blazing, or if you have questions on driving directions to the start point.

Many of the backroads have multiple names depending on which map you are using. When known, multiple names for the same road have been indicated in italics within brackets.

On the trail: (all trail descriptions will be westbound, follow in reverse for eastbound)

The Teddy Lake Spur heads south from Segment 32 at (46.604534,-88.205247) This short trail is well worth checking out with a lovely rocky overlook at Teddy Lake.

Camping:

Craig Lake State Park backcountry campsites will be by reservation only starting in 2023. Backcountry reservations at Craig Lake State Park Camping season runs from May 20 through November 1. All overnight backpackers will be required to make a backcountry reservation for a specific campsite. Dispersed camping is not allowed. Long distance NCNST hikers can call Van Riper State Park Campground Office at (906) 339-4461 prior to their hike to inform the DNR that they are traveling through and DNR staff can check them in. Hikers will be allowed to print reservation papers and have them available should a backcountry ranger ask to see them. Campsite 12 is located on the spur trail.

Water Access:

Water is available at Teddy Lake.

See Segment 32 for directions and access information.